

Freedom is dependent on diversity of opinion and that is becoming scarce in our present media environment. Please do everything possible to allow for more (not less) diversity of opinion in our daily news outlets. Deregulation has led to too much consolidation and major corporate control of opinion in our country. Please do not allow for more consolidation of the media.

Sincerely yours,
George W. Katsilometes